Maryville Emancipation Celebration.

MARYVILLE, Jan. 13, 1871. EDITORS CHRONICLE: According to preyous announcement, there was a supper eiven in memory of the emancipation proclamation, which was issued by Hon. Lincoln, late President of the United States, by the colored people of our little town. It was given in the Presbyterian church (white) last night. The house was well growded by white and black, and Our House Furnishing Department seemed to enjoy themselves and enliven the occasion. The house was beautifully decorated. Over the pulpit was a large American flag, and in the centre was a lerge portrait of Abraham Lincoln; on each side was large pictures, one represent-ing Grant, and the other Christ, and between these pictures was this inscription in large letters: "In memory of the Emancipation Proclamation, Grant and the 15th Amendment. In God we trust!"

At 6 o'clock the house was called to order. After the object of the meeting was stated prayer was offered by Rev. G. W. Le Vere, after which supper was prepared and all participated in the festivities of the evening. After an interval of one hour, the house was again called to order, a hymn was sung and the emancipation proclamation was read by Allen Garner, dr. A piece was sung by all. The opening address was delivered by Mr. James A. Scott, (colored student of Maryville College.) His subject was "Lincoln and emancipation." We were moved by his eloquent appeals to the human heart. His address was the best we have ever heard on the subject. He will, if he continues, be an orator of some distinction at some future day. Next was Mr. L. A. Rutherford. His subject was the "Black man."
He brought a great many interesting historical facts connected with the colored people, which were well received. Next was C. Wallace's select declamation.

was C. Wallace's select declamation.

Rev. G. W. Le Vere was called upon, and in his usual racy style delivered an ineresting speech.

President Bartiett, of Maryville College, was called upon and made a few remarks. Everything passed off very nicely, and reflects great credit upon the colored peo-nobleman, in a paroxysm of passion, slew his only brother. The church condemned him for three years to a monastery, to him for three years to a monastery, to prayer and penitence, his food to be of the weeds which grew in the enclosures about his prison. Celery, bleached in the shade of the cloister, then became a favorite food; and, when released from his confinement, then but little he transplanted the weed, then but little better than a night-shade, to his garden; it was set in trenches, to bleach it, and to make it crisp and tender for his palate. He was a leader in fashionable life, and his example was imitated throughout Europe; and celery became at first a garnishment for the table, then a luxury, and now a necessary for the palate.

FIFTEEN GREAT MISTAKES.-It is a great mistake to set up our own standard of right and wrong, and judge people ac-cordingly. It is a great mistake to measto expect uniformity of opinion in this world; to look for indgment and experience in youth; to endeavor to mold all dispositions alike; not to yield in immaterial trifles; to look for perfection in our own actions; to worry ourselves and others with what cannot be remedied; not to alleviate ail that needs alleviation, as far as lies in our power : not to make allowances for the infirmities of others; to consider thing impossible which we canuot perform; Knoxville City Directory. to believe only what our finite minds can grasp; to expect to be able to understand everything. The greatest of all mistakes is, to live for time, when any moment may launch us intoeternity.
